

U.S. Kids Golf unveils U.S. Kids Golf Teen Series, multi-day tournaments for players aged 13-18.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Feb 15, 2021

Pinehurst, NC – U.S. Kids Golf is excited to announce the creation of U.S. Kids Golf Teen Series, ranked 2-day tournaments designed for players aged 13-18. These events will be held at various locations throughout the year in various locations across the United States.

U.S. Kids Golf Teen Series is being established in response to an overwhelming number of requests from families around the country, many of whom have participated in U.S. Kids Golf multi-day events over the years. Each of these new championships will host four age groups, Boys 13-14, Boys 15-18, Girls 13-14, and Girls 15-18, and will fill a critical competition gap for these players, allowing thousands more to remain competitively active as they grow older.

Even more, the championships will also serve as important qualifying events, as players will have the opportunity to earn U.S. Kids Golf Priority Status, AJGA Performance Stars, as well as Junior Golf Scoreboard Rankings.*

With U.S. Kids Golf Priority Status, players can earn entry into multi-day marquee events around the world, including the European Championship, Panama Invitational, Venice Open, South American Championship, and Caribbean Championship. The very best performers will gain an invitation to the U.S. Kids Golf World Teen Championship – the pinnacle kids golf championship held in Pinehurst, NC, featuring hundreds of elite players from around the globe.*

A number of Teen Series events for 2021 are scheduled, with plans for others to come throughout the year.
